"GET DRUNK, ALWAYS. THAT IS THE POINT: NOTHING ELSE MATTERS. IF YOU WOULD NOT FEEL THE HORRIBLE BURDEN OF TIME WEIGH YOU DOWN AND CRUSH YOU TO THE EARTH, BE DRUNKEN CONTINUALLY.
DRUNKEN WITH WHAT?
WITH WINE, WITH POETRY OR WITH VIRTUE, AS YOU PLEASE. BUT GET DRUNK."

Not bad for an incompetent amateur, eh?

An Evening of Mystical Puppets

You are invited to a performance of

The Subterranean Puppet Theatre

Saturday, Nov. 7 at 8 pm

237 Chattanooga Street at 23rd (downstairs)

Alfred Jarry began his theatrical career with the presentation of Pere Ubu on the marionette stage. The dadaists and surrealists continued to exploit the mystery of puppetry. In that vein, Russ Conrad and Louise Jarmilowicz present recent works for the puppet theatre.

The program will include the story of E.J., a young Houdini enthusiast who relives the illusions of the great master; several new works; live music and an opportunity for the audience to experiment with puppetry en masse.

Please bring beverage of choice for post-production party.

- This show is intended for adults. Children are welcome but parents should be aware that some material could be upsetting to the young and require explanation.
Info: 824-4370.
